

Forefront Medical Technology Pte Ltd
35, Joo Koon Circle
6th Floor
Singapore 629110

Job Title: Senior / Project Engineer

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Leading and managing new product development & continuous improvement projects planning and execution from beginning to the end.
- Leading and working closely with cross-functional groups in delivering effective project development results.
- Able to identify and resolve project issues and conflicts within the project team.
- Plan and execute projects in accordance to the Company project management best practices and tools.
- Managing quality objectives, regulatory requirement, schedules, and project risks and making decisions based on business objectives.
- Able to apply continuous improvement best practices tools like DMAIC or Value Stream Mapping when handling projects.

Requirements:

- Degree in Mechanical/Material Engineering or equivalent
- Preferably experience with medical device product development
- Certification in Six Sigma or Lead Six Sigma will be an added advantage